

EI and the Magic Millions Horses-In-Training 2007 Breeze-ups & Sales

Protocols & Procedures - Biosecurity measures for all People Attending the Sales & Breeze-ups

Everyone must present themselves at the Magic Millions Sales Complex in a clean manner, having undertaken appropriate personal hygiene measures. This will include showering, washing hair and changing clothes prior to attending, each day during the event.

Everyone must register their name, address & contact details upon entry to the Magic Millions Sales Complex.

Upon entering the Complex everyone must ensure they disinfect their footwear and hands using the wash-trays and basins provided.

Do not venture into restricted areas where horses are present unless absolutely necessary.

Avoid physical contact with horses unless absolutely necessary. If physical contact is made then ensure appropriate disinfecting is administered immediately after contact is made, utilising the wash basins provided.

All persons leaving the complex should undertake biosecurity procedures upon their return home, before going near any other horses. This includes showering and changing clothes.

No dogs allowed at the Complex.
